JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
 St. Louis Police Department
 Third Annual Memorial Breakfast
 St. Louis, Missouri
 Thursday, 12 May

Deputy Chief of Administration for the St. Louis Police Department, Lieutenant Colonel James J. Hackett, has invited you to address their Third Annual Memorial Breakfast honoring 146 police officers killed over the years in the line of duty. The breakfast will be held May 12th at the Clarion Hotel in St. Louis. You are asked to speak on any subject of your choice for 15 - 20 minutes. Approximately 1600 police officers and their families will attend.

Since you have a speaking engagement at Georgetown University on May 10th and are planning to attend the ALI meeting in Chicago the following week, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Colonel Hackett:

Many thanks for your kind invitation to address the breakfast honoring the police officers killed in the line of duty. I wish it were possible for me to accept your invitation for May 12th. Unfortunately, I have long-standing commitments for that time, including travel plans.

Please give my condolences to the families and fellow officers of those dedicated men who sacrificed their lives to uphold law and order. The city of St. Louis is a safer place because of their efforts and the citizens have every reason to be proud of their police force.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Director Webster:

On Thursday, May 12, 1988, the St. Louis Police Department will honor the memory of its 146 police officers killed in the line of duty. The Third Annual Memorial Breakfast will be held in the main ballroom of the Clarion Hotel, from 7:30 to 9:00 a.m. We anticipate an attendance of 1600.

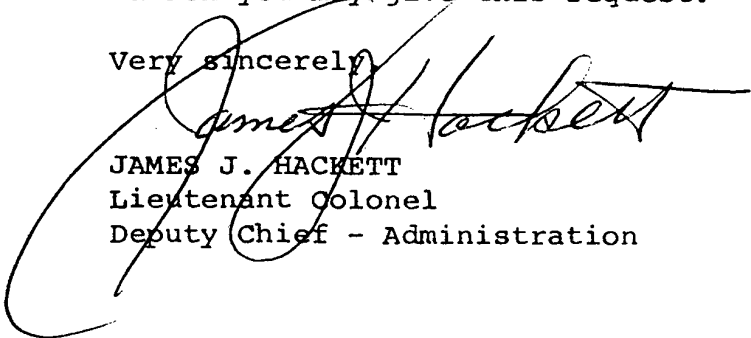

As chairman of the Breakfast Committee, it is my privilege to invite you to give the main address at the Breakfast. Please speak on any subject of your choice for approximately 15 to 20 minutes.

I have been advised that your schedule may not be conducive to honoring our invitation. While I understand that, I have to hope that the combination of this very special occasion, and your St. Louis roots, will be persuasive in this heart felt invitation.

Please know that we are prepared to meet any cost for transportation, accommodations and other expenses you invoke in our behalf.

Thank you for any consideration you may give this request.

Very sincerely,

JAMES J. HACKETT
Lieutenant Colonel
Deputy Chief - Administration
